Baker Man Will Be Bank Inspector

Baker, Or., Nov. 3.—Arthur L. James, several years assistant cashier of the First National bank here, was yesterday notified of his appointment as assistant national bank inspector for district No. 12, including the Pacific coast states.

The appointment was made through Chief Examiner Claude Gatch of San Francisco by Comptroller of the Currency Williams.

Mr. James announced he will accept, resigning here. He qualified for the position in an examination at Washington last June. He will leave soon for San Francisco headquarters.

Congressman W. C. Hawley will speak at the Grand theatre at 8 o'clock tonight on the issues of the campaign from the republican viewpoint.

THE "COME-BACK"

The "Come-back" was really never down-and-out. His weakened condition because of over-work, lack of exercise, improper eating and living, demands stimulation to satisfy the cry for a health-giving appetite and the refreshing sleep essential to strength. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules, the National Remedy of Honolulu, will do the work. They are wonderful! Three of these capsules each day will put a man on his feet before he knows it; whether his trouble comes from uric acid poisoning, the kidneys, gravel or stone in the bladder, stomach derangement or other ailments that befall the over-zealous American. Don't wait until you are entirely down-and-out, but take them today. Your druggist will gladly refund your money if they do not help you. 25c, 50c and $1.00 per box. Accept no substitutes. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on every box. They are the pure, original, imported Haarlem Oil Capsules.

REINHART'S Shoe Policy

When Shoes were cheaper before the war, Reinharts Shoes cost less than they do now. But there were always cheaper shoes to be had. Now that leather is so expensive, All Shoes have advanced. But ours cost no more in proportion than formerly. In fact, cheaper shoes have advanced more than our own.

You still want a good shoe. But the cheaply made shoe at the new high price will create more trouble to the wearer than the good old Reinhart Quality at the small advance in price.

We shall keep our prices as low as honest leather and good shoemaking will permit.

PRICES $3.00 TO $8.00

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hamilton and daughter passed through Salem this morning by auto, traveling from Oakland to Spokane, to join M. L. Hamilton, who is in ill health. Mr. Hamilton is well known having lived here several years.

The boys as well as the teachers at the State Training School were entertained last night by the readings and recitations of J. W. Cole, a professional elocutionist. His selections were from J. Whitcomb Riley, Ben King, Bill Nye and Will Carlton.

A. L. Wallace, who has been in Los Angeles studying optometry for the past six months, returned last evening. Notwithstanding all that has been said about the southern California climate, Mr. Wallace is more than satisfied with the weather we have been having today and is mighty glad to get home.

There is a new design of a dime soon to be in circulation, just out of the San Francisco mint. In order that the Salem folks may be able to see the latest style in dimes, the Ladd & Bush bank has sent to San Francisco for a supply, which will probably arrive here about Monday. On the obverse side is the head of the goddess of Liberty with the inscription, "In God We Trust," and also date. On the reverse side, is a face entwined with garlands and the inscription, "E Pluribus Unum."

The funeral of Herschel Cooley, who was accidentally shot Tuesday at his home at Fossil, Oregon, will be held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home of Warren Cooley, 1263 North Twentieth street. The services will be conducted by the Rev. F. T. Porter and burial will be in Lee Mission cemetery. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cooley and was 40 years old. Besides his parents, he is survived by his wife, Mildred Cooley, and two children, Irene and Glenn Cooley. He is also survived by two brothers and a sister living in Salem, Ralph and Ellis Cooley, and Mrs. D. B. Simpson; a brother, Harry W. Cooley, of Harrisburg; a sister, Mrs. L. J. Bowman, of Peaslee, Wis., and a brother, Edwin Cooley, of Suring, Wis. Mr. Cooley and his family were former residents of Marion and from there moved six weeks ago to Fossil where Mr. Cooley had charge of a large ranch.

Louis Gleason was in the city Thursday from Gervais.

At the city election next Monday and the national election Tuesday, there is nothing to prevent a republican so registered from voting for any name on the democratic ticket, or vice versa. It is at the primary elections only that a voter is handed a ballot according to registration. At the city and general elections, there is but one ballot handed the voter, and regardless of the party registered with, the voter can mix things according to his or her fancy.

PERSONALS

Carl Williams, of Independence, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Halkins, of Cottage Grove, are in the city.

H. H. Willard, of Beggs, Oregon, is registered at the Bligh.

S. Saistrick, of Brownsville, was a Salem visitor yesterday.

William Bengs, of Marion, is transacting business in the city.

Alex Merrifield, marshal of Aumsville, was a Salem visitor yesterday.

Dr. Hickman, of Gervais, was transacting business in the city Thursday.

J. B. Losley and family, of Oregon City, were registered yesterday at the Capital hotel.

D. B. Fuller, U. S. deputy marshal, of Portland, was in the city yesterday, a guest at the J. E. Scott home.

John Dary and John Smith, of the Wadsworth Hills, were in the city last evening attending the Elk entertainment.

Congressman Willis C. Hawley will deliver an address at the Grand opera house this evening on the political issues of the campaign. Excellent music has been provided. Mr. Hawley believes in the fundamental principles of the republican party, but above all he is a fair and patriotic American citizen. He will treat the issues of the campaign from an unprejudiced standpoint and attempt to carry conviction by sound argument instead of resorting to subterfuge. Speaking will begin at eight o'clock and the public is invited.—Congressional Committee, W. J. Culver, chairman. (Paid Adv.)

With the present rain softening the soil so that farmers can plough, the fall turning of the soil is expected to absorb the attention of the farmer for the next few weeks. Up to the present time the ground has been too hard and dry for effective ploughing. The rains of the past week have wet the ground to a depth of four and five inches but the showers of today are expected to increase this depth to eight inches. Hay and vetch up Ankeny Bottom way have been disced in on the spring plowing and as soon as the soil is wet enough plowing in general will begin.

Assistant State School Superintendent Frank Welles and County School Superintendent Smith will give addresses at the basket and plate social held this evening by the Salem Heights public school for the benefit of their manual training department. The program will begin at 8 o'clock. Among the other features of the entertainment are Cora Fisher, of the Salem high school, who will sing; Lena Hall and Esther Anderson, of J. J. Knapp's Normal school, who will give a piano duet; and others who will read and sing. The public is cordially invited to attend.

There seems to be a regular crop of people who are careless in addressing letters. When mis-directed or improperly directed letters are mailed at the Salem postoffice, they are posted in a case in the lobby. For instance, a postal card, with no address reads in part: "Stella and I are in Salem having a nice time." A postal is addressed to Jeanette Jones, McKay Creek, Oregon, and is held up as there is no such postoffice in the state. The letter to W. B. Spencer, Madison, with no state address, cannot travel, nor the one addressed to Mrs. C. M. Boring, St. Croix Falls. The postal clerks are rather backward about forwarding letters unless there is also a state address included.

Miss Elizabeth Schoffen, formerly Sister Luerita, of St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, Oregon, will speak at the German Methodist Episcopal church at Thirteenth and Center streets Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to women only and Saturday evening at the same church at 8 o'clock to a mixed audience. Miss Schoffen spoke in the First Methodist church here recently and in the First Christian church to crowded houses. She returns to Salem at the urgent request of many Salem people who are interested in what she has to say concerning her life and experiences while in the Portland hospital. The public is cordially invited to attend and the admission is free. A free-will offering is to be taken in order to defray her expenses to this city.

W. J. Cole, of San Francisco, a reader and innumerator and a former newspaper man, gave an entertainment last night at the Oregon State Training School for Boys. He was the guest of Superintendent Hale, on whose invitation the entertainment was given. Mr. Cole is expected to be in Salem some time.

The Sonora Talking Machine the world's best entertainer. Myrtle Knowland, 421 Court St.

Visitors and newcomers to Salem will not be entertained with reading the word "penitentiary" or the word "asylum" on the newly painted street cars. The penitentiary car came home from the Beaverton shops with the word "State" and the asylum car took on the more euphonious word "Chemeketa."

A good position can be had by any ambitious young man or young lady in the field of railway or commercial telegraphy. Since the passage of the eight hour law by congress, it has created a big demand for telegraph operators. Positions paying from $75 to $80 per month, with good chances for advancement. It will pay you to write Railway Telegraph Ins't, of Portland, Ore., for full particulars. nov4

J. E. Adams, machinist, who is in charge of the navy recruiting station here, was in Dallas yesterday. He found good prospects there for recruiting and expects to sign up a number of the young men there.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy at the death of our husband and father, George Flory.
Mrs. Dora Flory,
Mrs. R. Sischo and children.

Vote 57 X Hattie Cameron. nov4

Governor Withycombe yesterday received and accepted the resignation of H. G. Meyer, formerly of Salem, as a member of the State Board of Barber Examiners. In Mr. Meyer's place the Governor has appointed Lee Canfield, of Salem. He will fill the unexpired term of the Meyer's appointment, terminating March 2, 1918.

Vote 57 X Hattie Cameron, democratic candidate for state representative. nov4

Harry Plant, armorer for Company M, has started training for the purpose of taking on all comers in the boxing game at 185 pounds weight. Armorer Plant has served in the Canadian army and had a reputation as a clever boxer. He was with the boys of Company M on the border and now wishes to get back into the squared ring for some interesting bouts this winter.

Hear Congressman W. C. Hawley on the political issues of the campaign at the Grand opera house tonight. (Paid adv.)

Now that the greatest fall drought in the history of Oregon, 47 days with no rain, is broken, it might be well to note that it has been raining to some extent every day for the past six days. The precipitation yesterday was .28 of an inch and for the past six days, 1.53 inches. The temperature yesterday ranged from 56 to 40.

All hats from the French Shop that are shown at Oregon theatre tonight will be on special display and sale tomorrow at The French Shop, 359 State.

Car No. 864 of the Salem Street Railway is home from Beaverton with its new dress of cherry red, cut in the latest style show model. This means that it is a one-man car, with the near side entrance only. Two of these one-man cars have been running on the Southern Pacific Twelfth street line and have been found entirely satisfactory.

Congressman Hawley will discuss the political issues of the campaign at the Grand opera house tonight. Everybody invited. (Paid adv.)

J. H. Blasburn, lieutenant commander in the U. S. N., who has charge of the district comprising Wyoming, Southern Washington and Oregon, is expected in Salem next week to deliver an address before the Salem high school on "The Navy and Naval Life." He will treat the navy from the viewpoint as a possible career and show its attractiveness for the young men of today.

All hats from the French Shop that are shown at Oregon theatre tonight will be on special display and sale tomorrow at The French Shop, 359 State.

Brown rot, fungi, and San Jose scale have been thriving on Marion county orchards during the past summer and fall, according to County Fruit Inspector Constable today. He says the wet and cold season has been responsible for the rapid advance of these pests of the orchard. In his opinion it will take a great deal of spraying this winter and next spring to eliminate this condition.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends who so kindly remembered and assisted us during the illness and following the death of Mrs. Rose Fieldin.

MRS. N. A. WALKER,
WALTER EDWARDS,
WARREN EDWARDS.

The Rev. R. N. Avison and family will be given a reception by the members of the church and congregation in the church parlors on the evening of Friday, November 10. Although Dr. Avison had the opportunity to occupy a higher position in church circles which would have taken him away from Salem he preferred to remain here and the reception is in the way of celebrating the appointment for another year of Dr. Avison to this church.

CARD OF THANKS

To the many friends of our son and brother Gilbert who were so kind to him during his long affliction and for their kindness and assistance in performing the last sad rites, we wish to extend to them our sincere thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sloper,
Mrs. Lillie L. Loftin,
Ross R. Sloper,
Leon L. Sloper.

There are a few cereals served regularly for breakfast by the good housekeeper to the head of the family and others that are gradually advancing in price, and it is now up to the aforesaid good housekeeper to either cut down on the rations, or face a larger grocery bill on the first of each month. For instance, some grocers are now selling puffed wheat at 15 cents straight and there is a fine chance for other wheat foods to get into the right price instead of the two for a quarter.
